

Research Assistant on Blockchain Project

We are searching for a researcher to work on the project about improving the security, efficiency and privacy of academic record keeping and verification process by application of blockchain technology.

Qualifications:

The candidates should be enrolled to a Master of Science program in preferably computer science or related department.

- Good knowledge of applied cryptography and discrete mathematics skills.
- Basic understanding of blockchain technology, and smart contracts and bitcoin ecosystem.
- Excellent software development skills with object oriented programming languages (C++, Java, Javascript, Python, Solidity).
- Familiarity with web technologies, and database management.
- Good command of English.

The successful candidate will have the opportunity to work as a core blockchain developer and a blockchain software developer. The duration of the support is 12 months will be payed within the BAP (Scientific Research Fund) project of Istanbul Bilgi University. The start date is November.

Contact: Özgül Küçük, ozgul.kucuk@bilgi.edu.tr,
Istanbul Bilgi University, Computer Engineering Department.
0546 684 15 92, (212) 311 75 03.